

PTA The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. M. H. Spaulding

TORRANCE COUNCIL. October PTA Council meeting will be held on Oct. 7, at the Torrance Recreational Center at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Romayne Martin of Palos Verdes will be guest speaker. Her topic will be "You Too Can Be a Leader." Featured chairmen at this meeting will be the Magazine and PTA chairmen. A short social hour will precede the program and everybody is invited to help launch the new year in PTA. Notice has been made that there will be workshops conducted for all chairmen on Sept. 17, at the First Christian Church in Torrance at 9:30 a.m.

ARLINGTON Sept. 14 at 12:15, Arlington PTA will serve a potluck luncheon at the school to welcome the teachers and introduce any new members of the faculty. Arrangements will be formed Thursday when Mrs. Kenneth Storey will hold a meeting at her home. Serving on this committee will be Mmes. Robert Jones, Robert LeFrancis and Ed Williams. Plans will be brought to completion when the Board meets Sept. 10 at the School Music Room.

Mrs. Wilbur Harmon, program chairman, has announced the titles of each month's program which are based on different letters of the alphabet. October, "Aims and Beginnings"; November, "Character and Discipline"; December, "Holiday Magic"; January, "Excellence or Failure"; February, "Gratitude and Honor"; March, "Interest in Government and Juvenile Protection"; April, "Keep on Learning"; and May, "Music and News."

CASIMIR "Meet Me at the Fair" was chosen as the theme for the Membership Drive of the Casimir Elementary PTA at a recent meeting of the Membership Committee.

Bone-Lipkowski Nuptials Read at St. Margaret's

St. Margaret Mary Church in Lomita was the setting for the mid-morning nuptial mass recently, when Miss Deloris Bone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Bone, 19315 Annalee, Gardena, formerly of Harbor City, became the bride of Larry Lipkowski. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William Lipkowski, 25367 Woodward Ave., Lomita.

Following the marriage and mass, a special papal blessing was given the young couple by Rev. John Hegarty, pastor. The bride, on the arm of her father, came to the altar wearing a long gown of white organza over taffeta. The wattleau back fell into a chapel train. Her bouffant veil was secured by a pearl encrusted tiara and the bride carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and cymbidiums.

Miss Sharon Bone was a maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jean Kochesky, Connie Ronca, Sheri Brossard, Carol Lipkowski, and Rosemary Lipkowski. All attendants were in long turquoise blue chiffon gowns. The honor attendant wore coral chiffon.

David Bone served as best man. Ushers were Edward Brenner, Bob Dressel, Don Swensrud, William Lipkowski, Jr., and Shig Kishi.

A reception and buffet dinner was held at Nativity hall in Torrance. The Stan Clover trio furnished music for dancing. A five-tiered cake was served by the bride's aunts, Mrs. Helen Ronca and Mrs. Katherine Kochesky. Joyce Swensrud the home of Mrs. Kenneth Jones, membership chairman. Attending were Mmes. Philip Keller, Nelson Byers, Melvin Sanders, Robert Shuss, Jack Langley and Ralph Mitchell.

FLAVIAN Flavian PTA executive board will hold its first meeting of the school year on Sept. 3 at 7:30 in the home economics room.

The board met recently to plan activities for the coming year. Dates were set for the teacher's luncheon to be held on Sept. 15 and the annual carnival Oct. 17. Mrs. Ralph Wodard, ways and means chairman, has been holding weekly meetings getting items ready for the carnival.

During July a paper drive was held. Money collected from this project goes to school parties. Movies will also be shown during the coming year on Saturdays.

CARL STEELE Carl Steele PTA met recently at the home of Mrs. Tom Lemley, president, to plan the annual teachers' luncheon to be held Sept. 15, at noon, in the school cafeteria. Theme for the luncheon will be "Mardi Gras."

"Building Home and School with Steele" is the theme selected for the coming year, according to Mrs. Judson Gregory, program chairman.

Mrs. Ken Spooner and Mrs. Myron Robinson, ways and means chairmen, announced an Ice Cream Social for the near future.

Proposed budget for the year will be presented for approval at the first association meeting scheduled for Oct. 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria, Torrance.

HALLDALE

Halldale PTA met recently under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Clark, program chairman, to plan the program for year 1964-65. The theme "Follow Through for Youth" was chosen. There will be eight meetings and this theme will be followed at each of them.

The ways and means projects will be a bake sale in October and May, an entertainer in November, and a spaghetti dinner in April in conjunction with the school's open house.

The recreation chairman, Mrs. Bob Kamidoi, and her helpers served sno-cones to the children who come to the Halldale Playground. The sno-cones were furnished once in July and again in August to approximately 200 children each time.

Kinyon-Resch Nuptials Solemnized in Waleria

Waleria Community Methodist Church was the setting for a summer candlelight marriage ceremony of Joy Marcia Kinyon and David Michael Resch.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles D. Jackson of Torrance. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Robert C. Kimple and Mr. John A. Resch of Eastsound, Wis.

For the wedding ceremony, the bride designed an empire gown of peau de soie with an overskirt of embroidered silk organza, which formed the chapel train. Her veil was elbow length silk illusion held by a pearl crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Wearing peau de soie gowns and carrying bouquets of white gladioli, with a touch of blue, were her attendants, Cheryl Chiaudana, maid of honor; Linda Anderson and Jacque Byrley, bridesmaids. Cheryl Holmes, also in a blue gown, was flower girl and Danny Kimple served as ringbearer.

The bridegroom chose Dale Kinyon as best man. Don Sims and Doug Naps were ushers. All were in U.S. Navy uniforms.

The bride attended the University of Washington and now attends California College of Commerce. The bridegroom serves with the United States Navy on the USS Hector, stationed in Long Beach.

After the honeymoon, the couple will reside in Lomita.

Attend Opera

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lawson of Hollywood Riviera entertained with a pre-theatre dinner party at the Pen & Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach before taking their guests, Dorothea Cooper and Dick Richards, to the Civic Light Opera to see a performance of "Here's Love."

Son's Birthday

Enjoying the tribal atmosphere of the American Indian while dining at the Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant in Torrance recently were Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Nelson of Hollywood Riviera and their son, Darrell, who was celebrating his 11th birthday at the family party.
